FIRST DAY.

MARION, IND., April 10, 1902.

At 8:40 A. M., Bishop Isaac W Joyce opened the fifty-ninth session of the North Indiana Conference in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in the city of Marion, Indiana. The Hymn No. 726,

"Come thou fount of every blessing," was sung, and Bishop Joyce read the following for Scripture lessons: Isaiah, 61st chapter, and Matthew 26, 17-30.

Hymn No. 214,

"Alas, and did my Savior bleed," was sung, and during the singing, at the request of the Bishop, the Presiding Elders and the Pastor of the Church came within the chancel. The Bishop then consecrated the elements and administered them to the Presiding Elders, and requested E L Semans to conduct the further service. The Bishop closed the service with extempore prayer, closing with the Lord's Prayer. The Hymn, was sung, thus ending the Sacramental service.

"Marching to Zion,"

Roll — The Bishop requested the Secretary of the former session to call the roll, and the following answered to their names:

REPORTS.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We are at length making good progress toward recovering our true relation to our great Bible Society. For many years our collections for this cause were allowed to dwindle until from holding a position next to that of Missions, it was allowed to drop even below those for the Sunday School Union or Tract Society. The reports for this year show a very encouraging advance, but they are not one-third what this indispensable society deserves and urgently needs. If this society is crippled so as not to be able longer to furnish Bibles to our missionaries, it will be necessary for us, at great expense, to organize a denominational Bible Society, for it is impossible for our Missionary Society to supply the demand.

The vast outlay by the American Bible Society to meet the present urgent needs in the Philippines, appeals powerfully to every American Protestant and patriot. The Methodists of this Conference are all Protestants and patriots who firmly believe in the Holy Scriptures, and the importance of giving them to the world. They will liberally respond when the facts are laid before them. Therefore, Resolved, 1. That we present to all our people the world-wide work and the urgent needs of the American Bible Society.

2. That the apportionment for this Society shall be at least five per cent. of the amount apportioned for Missions.

3. That we freely apply to the Field Agent for this district, Rev Dr John Pearson, whose address is The Roanoke Clifton, Cincinnati, Ohio, for leaflets and other information and assistance in laying this cause before the people.

4. The Committee of Arrangements for next year are hereby directed to appoint a favorable hour for an anniversary of the American Bible Society.

CLASS MEETINGS.

We recognize the Class Meeting as one of the most potent factors in the church, in building up and maintaining the spirituality of our beloved Methodism; therefore,

Resolved, That we, as ministers, will repeatedly call attention to the usefulness of this means of grace, and urge our people to a regular attendance thereat. That leaders be selected with reference to their efficiency and spirituality.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension, and the Church at large, on the great success of this work in all its history, and especially on the remarkable financial success of the past year.

2. That our country being new, with rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions, still needs the work of Church Extension, and that our Methodism, by fostering and strengthening this work, will increase its own power to do the larger work demanded.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Conference, until all people in our land shall be furnished with places for worship.

4. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several districts and pastoral charges for collection, and that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, we will present this cause in all our churches, and secure at least the amount asked, in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

5. From 1866, when this work began, to November 1, 1991, the Board collected and disbursed $7,371,711.73. Of this, the General Fund, derived chiefly from collections, personal gifts for frontier churches, $250 each, and Mountain Fund specials of $100 each, all for use by donations to churches, has aggregated $4,626,865.99. The Loan Fund has a permanent capital of $1,189,571.65, and churches borrowing have returned $1,555,274.09, giving for use by loans $2,744,-845.74, making the aggregate above given $7,371,711.73.

6. Our Conference has shared in this work as follows: The collections taken in our churches from the beginning to November 1, 1901, the close of the last fiscal year of the Board, aggregated $43,689.15. To this our Conference adds this year $3,085, making a total of $46,774.15. Forty-four churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1, 1901: By donations of $7,600, by loans of $19,150.

7. The part our Conference is to take, in both giving and receiving, is definitely fixed, under provisions of Discipline, by the General Committee, from year to year. For the ensuing year, our Conference is asked to raise by collections $5,500. Our needy churches may, on approved application, receive $1,000. The amount of aid granted must depend on the amount of the collections taken, and cannot exceed the proportion above indicated. Interest, therefore, in our own Conference, as well as in the general cause, should inspire us to use all diligence to secure the full amount asked, and, if possible, go beyond it.

8. We heartily approve the election of W D Parr, D D, a member of our Conference, to the office of Assistant Secretary of this Society, and will open the way for him to visit our charges in his work, and will heartily welcome him when he comes.

Signed by the Committee.

Orange S Harrison, Chairman.

David Wells,
D H Guild,
A E Sarah.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

The report of the Board of Insurance, elected by General Conference for the year 1901, is in every way gratifying. The business increased 40 per cent, and now aggregates over fourteen and one-half million dollars, and reaches every State and Territory in the Union. There are approximately 12,000 policies in force.

Although the year was a fiery one, resulting disastrously to many stock companies, our National Mutual Church Insurance Company not only paid promptly every one of its 117 losses, but also paid throughout the entire year a dividend of 10 per cent, which is twice the average dividends of all the stock companies of the Unlted States for the past twenty years. In addition to saving thousands of dollars for churches that have heretofore insured in stock companies, there are approximately 6,000 churches insured that were without protection until our company came to their relief, which were unable to meet the terms of the stock companies.

Policy holders have had their attention called from time to time to danger points, thus assisting in realizing the remarkably favorable loss record. Still many churches and parsonages remain uninsured, and even yet the humiliating spectacle is presented to the public of a heap of ashes here and there where our churches once stood, and no insurance money to help rebuild, because duty has been neglected.

Let us insist upon a compliance with the Discipline and common sense, and see to it that every dollar's worth of our church property is properly protected without unnecessary delay.

Address inquiries to Henry P Magill, Secretary and Manager, No. 57 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

Henry W Bennett,
M S Marble,
J E Ervin.

DEACONESS AND HOSPITAL WORK.

We feel assured that Methodism has not given enough attention to the relief of pain. A partial reason for this is found in the fact that ours is a pioneer church, threading the wilderness and taking the gospel to the poor, whose spiritual needs appeared to make the greatest appeal. The wilderness is now gone, the church is no longer poor, and the day has come to do the work of the good Samaritan.

Inasmuch as the Articles of Association of the Hospital and Deaconess Home provide for the annual election of Directors, and as they do not provide for the possible contingency of a new Board entire at any annual election, we recommend that the election of Directors by this Conference be with an intent of three years' service, and so arranged that the time of one Director shall expire each year. We recommend as Trustees Rev L J Naftzger, term to expire in 1903; Rev W D Parr, term to expire in 1904, and Hon Charles L Henry, term to expire in 1905.

Inasmuch as a majority of the Presiding Elders of the State have concurred in the plan of concentrating our efforts in each district, therefore be it

Resolved, That we favor this plan for the districts of our Conference, and suggest that our Presiding Elders arrange for this work by holding institutes devoted to this cause, or by such other means as may be found best.

We rejoice that fifty-three thousand dollars in subscriptions and real estate have been given to this cause, and we learn with pleasure that from thirty to fifty thousand dollars, not counted as assets, have been provided in wills for the Hospital and Deaconess Home.

We will welcome Dr W R Halstead to our churches to present this work to our people, and recommend that those blessed with wealth give liberally for this noble cause, and that persons of smaller means give according to their ability.

We recommend that Miss Clara M Bennett, a graduate of the Chicago Training School, be granted a Deaconess license, and request Bishop Joyce to arrange for her consecration, and for the signing of the license by the Bishop who shall officiate at the consecration.

E E Neal,
Mrs L A Retts,
H J Norris,
Leslie J Naftzger,
Mrs L H Bunyan.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Your Committee examined the record of our only District Conference — that of Muncie District. The record was found correct and complete, and with the 163 annual reports from the members of the District Conference, is substantially bound.

EDUCATION.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

All young men expecting to enter our ministry are entreated to attend one of our Theological Schools. The privileges and benefits of this course of study are manifest.

Boston School of Theology has a progressive Faculty, minimum expenses, and the intellectual stimulus of a classic city.

Garrett Biblical Institute, of Northwestern University, is located at Evanston, Ill. It has scholarly instructors, access to the University libraries and laboratories, and is the peer of any Theological school in our land. We especially recommend our young ministers to attend this school, as it is in close touch with the religious thought of the people of this patronizing territory.

Drew Theological Seminary, of Madison, N. J., is one of our greatest and best equipped schools. Some of the advantages here offered are free scholar ships at Columbia University, its proximity to the great metropolis, its magnificent campus, material equipment, and a competent Faculty.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This institution is located within the bounds of our own Conference. It is under the control of the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It is Methodistic, thoroughly spiritual, has a devoted Faculty and a commendable course of study. We commend it to the sympathy and favorable consideration of our people.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

The American University will stand for Americanism, Protestantism and Methodism. It is to be a great post-graduate school at our Nation's capital, where training of the highest character and original investigation can be pursued under Christian auspices, close to the marvelous Congressional Library and numerous scientific collections owned by the government, and which will be open to the students of the University.

The University is making much progress, and God is raising up friends who are generous and wise. The Hall of Philosophy is now complete. Being a post-graduate institution, there is no room for jealousy. It does not parallel the teachings of any school in this country, but takes the place of great universities abroad.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The work of this Board is bearing abundant fruit. It is making our educational work truly connectional, and constantly advancing it toward perfection. The circulation of the Christian Student and Educational Truths for the Twentieth Century, can not fail to arouse interest. The wise administration of "The Children's Day Fund," and the increased benefits resulting to the Church therefrom, should impress every pastor and member of the Church, and stimulate greater loyalty to the work and plans of this Board.

METHODIST LAY WORKERS' INSTITUTE.

WHEREAS, The Methodist Lay Workers' Institute affords a two winters' course of study in the essential truths of the Bible, the life of Christ, Methodism and methods of service, with efficient supervision for Sunday School teachers, class leaders and personal workers, at the moderate cost of two dollars; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we cordially endorse this Institute, and recommend that a class for such study be formed in each pastoral charge in this Conference.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

The closing year will introduce a new era into the life of DePauw University. The time has come when the Universities of the land must offer more to the student than the old-time "Culture Course." We rejoice, therefore, in the erection of the "D. W. Minshall Laboratory," to be dedicated to science on the 11th of next June. Mr. Minshall died last November, after giving $50,000 for the erection of this building. Since his death his two children, Charles and Helen, have shown their liberality and devotion to the memory of their father by giving $6,000 more, to finish the structure. The building is 130 feet front by 80 feet in depth, three full stories and basement. It is built of pressed brick, stone, steel, and Portland cement. It is the equal of any building of its kind in the country, and will cost, when completed and furnished, about $75,000.

It is gratifying to know that the enrollment exceeds that of last year, and that the moral and spiritual atmosphere is good.

The final settlement of the DePauw estate is now progressing, and when completed will bring to the University an additional endowment of about $175,000.

We regret the occasion for placing a special financial secretary in the field in order to secure funds for current expenses, but understand that such action has already been ordered by the joint Board of Trustees and Visitors. The income for current expenses this year will nearly meet the claims. However, a University is a growing plant, and competition is sharp on all sides, therefore larger sums will be needed to meet the increasing demands of the future. When the twentieth century movement shall have run its course, the colleges and universities which have not greatly increased their endowments, will be at a serious disadvantage. We believe our University should be richly endowed, and we believe Indiana Methodism will do this as soon as intelligent conviction takes hold of our wealthy laymen.

We assure the Rev C E Line, D D, of our purpose to give him our hearty support during the coming year, in the special work for which he has been chosen as Field Agent for the University.

We recommend that DePauw Day, the second Monday in May, be observed in all our charges. We further recommend that the sum of fifteen cents per member be apportioned to all our charges, for current expenses; said sum to constitute our regular collection for education.

TRUSTEES FOR DEPAUW.

We recommend that the following be elected Trustees for three years, from September 1, 1902: M H Mendenhall, M V Beiger and Hardin Rhoads.

VISITORS.

We recommend that the following Visitors be appointed:

Visitors to DePauw: Rev C U Wade and Rev A W Lamport, for a term of two years from September 1, 1902, and Rev A S Preston to fill the unexpired term of Rev C E Line.

Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute: Rev E F Albertson and Rev J A Beatty.

Visitor to Boston School of Theology: Rev H W Bennett, D D.

Visitor to Drew Theological Seminary: Rev Sherman Powell.

WHEREAS, Mrs Anna Cunningham Hollingshead, of Grace Church, Hartford City, has willed the sum of $3,000 to the endowment fund of DePauw University; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we do hereby express our appreciation of this generous gift, and recommend that others follow the example of this faithful Christian woman.

WHEREAS, Mr A Small, of Markleville, has given $1,000 to DePauw University, in memory of his son, Rev Eli R Small; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we express our thanks to him for this helpful gift, and this method of perpetuating the memory of our sainted brother, who being dead, yet speaketh.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude for the encouraging evidences of growth and success that the Cabinet of the North Indiana Conference Epworth League submits its second annual report.

From the reports coming from the various Chapters of the Conference, we are led to believe that the work of our young people is assuming a more helpful and more permanent character in the encouragement which has been given to the study of the Bible, the development of missionary zeal, and the supremely important work of evangelization.

We are glad to report that the Annual Convention, held at Wabash last October, was of great benefit to our young people. The inspiring addresses, the practical instruction imparted, and the spiritual uplift given, made the convention a splendid preparation for the revival work of the winter. The following officers were elected:

President — A A Small.
First Vice-President — Rev C W Smith.
Second Vice-President — Mrs C H Brown.
Third Vice-President — Maurice M Powell.
Fourth Vice-President — Miss Zoe DeArmond.
Treasurer — Arthur S Lockwood.
Secretary — J F Snyder.
Superintendent Junior Work — Miss Matie Moore.

It is with deep regret that we announce the resignation of President A A Small, who has rendered such splendid service to the organization. The heartiest commendation is due him from all Epworth Leaguers for his untiring efforts. The Cabinet has fortunately secured Mr Herbert H Deam, of Bluffton, who will fill out the unexpired term.

We plead for the earnest co-operation of all the Districts of the Conference. We ask the pastors and all Epworth League workers to help make the Convention at Bluffton, next October, the greatest in our history. The members of the Cabinet will gladly co-operate in increasing the efficiency of the Epworth Leagues of the Conference.

On behalf of the Cabinet.

CHESTEEN SMITH, First Vice-President.
H H DEAM, Bluffton, Ind.
C W SMITH, Mishawaka, Ind.
MRS C H BROWN, Union City, Ind.
MAURICE M POWELL, Hartford City, Ind.
MISS ZOE DEARMOND, Wabash, Ind.

ARTHUR S LOCKWOOD, Peru, Ind.
MISS MATTIE MOON, Auburn, Ind.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, beg leave to submit the following report:

We heartily appreciate the work of this Society among the ten millions of black people and the three millions of poor white people of the South, and regard this as a fertile field for Home Mission work.

We commend the action of the General Committee, and the efforts of the present Secretaries, to reduce the burdensome debt which rests upon the Society.

We recommend the use, by all our pastors, of the splendid tracts published by the Society, and furnished free upon application to the Secretaries. The Christian Educator will be sent free to every person who gives one dollar, or more, to the Society, in the regular collection.

We especially approve the industrial departments of the schools of this Society.

We accept the apportionment of four thousand dollars ($4,000) to our Conference, and recommend that the Presiding Elders apportion the amount to the Districts.

O A TRABUE, C G HUDSON,
M E NETHERCUT, JOHN H RUNKLE,
J B NCNARY, J T FETTRO.

MISSIONS.

While not trying to overshadow the other benevolences of the church, we can but feel that the Missionary Society has first claim upon our effort and gifts. We therefore recommend the following for adoption and action:

First. We, as pastors, will, in the early part of the Conference year, plan, in council with our Committee on Missions, not only to raise our full apportionment, but to place every charge in the $2,000,000 column. To this end we will call into action the Epworth League Committee on Missions, and will organize our Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies, with a full corps of officers, and on the first Sunday of each month, at the close of the regular lesson, hold a 20-minute session of the society, and in a well prepared program present the cause of Missions and take the regular collection.

Second. We will send to headquarters for a full supply of literature to aid us in giving to our people missionary information, and thus create enthusiasm in their hearts for this, the one mission of the church — the salvation of the world from sin.

J B Ford,
B S Hollopeter,
J J Fred.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

The Committee on Parsonage and Furniture recommend that a parsonage be built on all our charges that have none, and, so far as practicable, comply with the recommendations of the General Conference (Paragraph 318 of Discipline) in reference to the building of parsonages on such charge.

We reaffirm the resolution of last year:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested, at the first Quarterly Conference, to inquire into the condition of each parsonage.

That the local Committee on Parsonage and Furniture be urged to purchase one or more articles of heavy furniture each year.

That the trustees of our parsonage property be requested to provide means for keeping the buildings in repair and for beautifying the grounds.

A A Turner, Chairman.
J D Belt,
Charles Tinkham.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Committee on Preachers' Aid Society make the following report:

First. We recommend that the office of General Secretary be continued, and that Rev E F Hasty be reappointed.

Second. That the salary of the General Secretary be the same as last year, $1,350, this to include all incidental expenses.

Third. That the rate be the same as last year. All effective preachers receiving $500, or less, not including parsonage or house rent, shall pay, or cause to be paid, by adding amount to the general benevolences, and reporting said amount under the head of other benevolent collections, two-fifths of one per cent.; all receiving more than $500 and less than $1,000, four-fifths of one per cent.; all receiving $1,000 or more, one and one-fifth per cent.

Fourth. Should the aggregate of these amounts be more than enough to pay the salary of the General Secretary, the excess shall be paid into the permanent fund of the society; or should the aggregate be less than the salary required, the Treasurer of the Board is authorized to pay the deficiency out of the society's funds.

Fifth. That the Presiding Elders be authorized to collect from the preachers at the Quarterly Meetings, and remit to the Treasurer of the society monthly.

Sixth. That all effective ministers in the Conference be given credit on the amount necessary to constitute them beneficiary members of the society for the amounts paid the last two years, and next for the General Secretary, provided that feature of the new Constitution be adopted which makes it necessary to pay into the treasury of the society $100 before they are entitled to a certificate of membership.

Seventh. That the Treasurer be instructed to advance money on the salary of the General Secretary as the emergencies of his work may require.

L M KRIDER, President,
D H GUILD, Secretary.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—NAME AND SEAL.

The corporate name of this organization shall be, "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church." It is organized under the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled, "An Act Concerning the Organization of the Voluntary Associations, and Repealing Former Laws in Relation Thereto," approved February 12, 1855, and an act amendatory thereto, approved February 10, 1863.

The seal of this society shall be a metallic impression containing the following words and letters: "The Preachers' Aid Society, N. Ind. Conf., M. E. Church."

ARTICLE II.—OBJECT AND FUNDS.

The object of this society shall be to raise by donations, bequests, membership dues, or otherwise, a fund to be perpetually maintained for the relief of itinerant preachers in the North Indiana Conference, their widows and dependent children, in harmony with the spirit of paragraph two hundred and ninety-three (293) of the Discipline of nineteen hundred (1900).

The funds of this society shall consist of receipts from the following sources:

First. That which was received by this Conference from the Preachers' Aid Society of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, incorporated by an act approved February 12, 1841; and the amount specifically appropriated to this object from the centenary contributions of the church.

Second. The money received as dues or fees from the members of the Society.

Third. Bequests, donations and subscriptions of money, bonds, stocks, real estate, personal property, or anything else of commercial value that may legitimately come into the possession of the Society.

The funds of this Society shall be permanent, but all the proceeds arising from rents, interest, or any investment that brings an income, shall, after the payment of all incidental expenses, be distributed annually as herein directed.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

The membership of this Society shall consist of two classes: Beneficiary and Non-Beneficiary. Effective members of the North Indiana Conference are eligible to membership in the first class, and lay members, or friends of the church not members of the Conference, are eligible to membership in the second class.

1. Beneficiary Members.—The annual fee for beneficiary members shall be one per cent. of the cash salary which the said member received the year immediately preceding, until his payments shall amount in the aggregate to one hundred dollars. Or he may elect to pay in annual installments of not less than ten dollars each, or in larger amounts, until he has paid in one hundred dollars, when he shall receive a certificate of life membership, not transferable. Those who have paid into the permanent fund of the Society annual dues or larger amounts, shall have credit for what they have paid. Those who have already paid one hundred dollars into the Society shall be entitled to a certificate of life membership.

2. Non-Beneficiary Members.—The annual membership fee in this class is five dollars; but one may become a life member by the payment of fifty dollars at one time, or a life patron by the payment of one hundred dollars in the same manner. The members in this class shall be entitled to participate in all the proceedings of the Society, provided they are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Notes bearing annual interest and payable within five years may be received from life members or life patrons.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, General Secretary, and nine Managers. These officers and managers shall be elected at the annual meetings of the Society, and shall hold their offices until the close of the next ensuing annual Conference, or until their successors are elected. They together shall constitute a Board of Control, having full power to manage the affairs of the Society, subject to this Constitution.

The Treasurer and five Managers shall be laymen resident in the city of Muncie or vicinty. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Treasurer shall give bond and security in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, which may at any time be increased at the discretion of the Board; said bond to be approved by the Board and filed with the Secretary.

The Board shall have power to make By-Laws for its own government not inconsistent with this Constitution. Any vacancy in office caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the interim of the annual Conference, may be filled by the Board.

ARTICLE V.—Benefits.

The net proceeds of the funds of this Society shall be distributed annually to such of its beneficiary members as are recognized by the annual Conference as entitled to assistance from the Conference Claimant Fund. If any member shall become a claimant before he has paid into the permanent fund of the Society the full sum of one hundred dollars, then one-third of the benefits which would accrue to him or his family shall be withheld each year and turned into the permanent fund, until he shall have one hundred dollars to his credit, when there shall be issued to him or his wife a certificate of life membership.

The proceeds of this Society shall be distributed according to the following basis:

Each superannuated minister, who is a Conference Claimant, shall be allowed annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service; each widow shall be allowed annually five dollars for each year she was the wife of a minister during his effective service; and each child, under sixteen years of age, of a deceased minister, shall be allowed annually two dollars for each year of the father's effective service.

ARTICLE VI.—Annual and Special Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Board of Control shall be held in the city of Muncie within the thirty days next preceding the session of the annual Conference, upon the call of the President or the highest ranking officer of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time, by the President or any three members thereof, upon reasonable notice being given to all the members of the Board. In all meetings of the Board, seven shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

The annual meetings of the Society shall be held at the seat of the annual Conference, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the second day of the session, the President of the Conference presiding. This meeting shall be for the purpose of electing officers and managers for the ensuing year; to receive and pass upon the annual report of the Board of Control, made out according to the order found in the accompanying By-Laws, and to transact any other business pertaining to the interest of the Society. This meeting may adjourn to any other day or days of the Conference session; or, in an emergency, the President and Secretary may call a meeting of the Society on any day before the Conference closes; and it shall require the presence of thirty-five members to constitute a quorum.

In the interim of the annual Conference, meetings of the Society may be called by the President, Secretary and any three members of the Board, twenty days' notice having been given in the official church paper (Weekly Advocate) having the largest circulation within the bounds of the Conference.

ARTICLE VII.—Investment of Funds.

The funds of the Society shall be invested according to the judgment of the Investing Committee, subject to the following restrictions:

All investments shall be made either by direct loan or by the purchase of United States bonds.

All loans shall be secured by two responsible names for amounts of two hundred dollars or less, who shall be joint drawers, and said loans shall be renewed annually. All loans over two hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered, imperishable real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount borrowed, and the net income of which exceeds the interest.

The Investing Committee shall make a full report of its doings and of the condition of the entire fund, to the Board at its annual meeting; and the Treasurer shall, at the same meeting, present a report of the receipts and expenditures during the current year, and of the amount on hand. The Board shall thereupon determine the amount to be applied to the objects of the Society for the Conference year then closing, and shall order accordingly, which amount the Treasurer shall be authorized to pay over to the Disbursing Committee. Contingent expenses shall be paid by the Treasurer, upon the order of the Board, and no money shall be paid out by him except as herein directed.

ARTICLE VIII.—Appointment of Committees.

A meeting of the Board of Control shall be held within the first thirty days after the annual Conference adjourns, at which time the following Standing Committees shall be appointed:

1. The Investing Committee, composed of the Treasurer and three laymen who are members of the Board of Control residing in the city of Muncie.

2. The Auditing Committee, whose duty it shall be to examine reports and such other documents as may be referred to it by the Board.

3. The Disbursing Committee, which shall consist of three members of the annual Conference, and who shall be members of the Society. It shall also be the duty of this committee, in the interim and during the session of the annual Conference, to obtain what information it can relative to the condition and necessities of claimants on the funds of this Society.

These committees shall serve until the close of the Conference session subsequent to their appointment.

ARTICLE IX.—The General Secretary.

The Society, at its regular annual meeting, shall elect a General Secretary in the same manner it does the other officers of the Society. By virtue of his office he shall be a member of the Board of Control, and shall work under the directions of the Board. The Society, upon recommendation of the Board, shall determine whether the General Secretary is to give his entire time to the work of the Society. It shall determine his salary and provide for its payment, either by a pro rata tax on the membership, or by directing the Board of Control to pay it from the funds of the Society. In either case, the salary shall be payable in quarterly installments.

All revenues and everything of commercial value that comes into the hands of the General Secretary shall be paid over to the Treasurer, who shall receipt therefor. These reports shall be made quarterly.

ARTICLE X.—Change of Constitution.

This Constitution, with its accompanying By-Laws, may be changed or amended, at an annual meeting of the Society, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, such changes or amendments having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board of Control.

BY-LAWS.

Section 1. The officers shall perform the same general duties at all meetings of the Board of Control that they do in the meetings of the Society.

Sec. 2. The Secretary shall keep a full and permanent record, in book form, of all the transactions of business, both of the Society and the Board of Control. He shall keep in his possession the corporate seal of the Society, all reports made either to the Society or to the Board, and all other important books and papers not belonging to the Treasurer or General Secretary.

Sec. 3. The General Secretary shall keep a list of those who have been granted certificates of life membership, and also a list of those who are in the process of becoming life members. He shall credit them with the payments they make from year to year, charging them six per cent. interest on all deferred payments until paid, this interest to be paid into the fund for disbursement, and not the fund for investment. The General Secretary shall make out all certificates for life membership, which shall bear the signature of the President and General Secretary of the Society.

Sec. 4. Any note executed to the Society by any of its members and remaining unpaid, shall be deducted from the allowance made to him, his widow, or children; but neither the Society nor the Board of Control shall have the power to apply the amounts so appropriated to the payment of any other claim.

Sec. 5. The report of the Board of Control to the annual meeting of the Society shall embrace the following items:

1. Total Permanent Fund at last report.
2. Total Permanent Fund at present.

3. Changes explained in detail.
4. Amounts now invested, with kinds of security.
5. Net proceeds reported last year.
6. Net proceeds for the present year.
7. Differences explained in detail.
8. Any other items necessary to complete the exhibit of the financial status of the Society.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

Your committee submits the following report:

We believe that the Methodist Episcopal Church now, as in the past, is called upon to give answer to the many moral and social questions which affect the spiritual life and development of the church and humanity. We therefore insist upon the practical and only safe solution — the one given in the New Testament — "Holiness unto the Lord."

Whereas, All forms of sin are an abomination in the sight of God, and should not be indulged in by any Christian; therefore

Resolved, That we ask our young people and Epworth Leaguers to faithfully attend all the means of grace, such as Epworth League devotional service, prayer and class meetings, public preaching, and that none of our people take any part in any amusement or entertainment of a questionable character, such as theatre, ball playing on Sunday, Sunday excursions, card playing and dancing.

Whereas, The granting of divorce for almost any cause is growing more and more alarming each year, until in our own State the number has reached more than 4,000 each year for the past three years, an average of one for every six marriage licenses issued.

Whereas, The restrictions upon securing marriage licenses are so few that many persons are licensed who ought not to marry; and that many of our ministers are called upon to perform the ceremony for persons divorced on other than Scriptural grounds.

Resolved, That we, as ministers, pledge ourselves to discourage in every possible manner the granting of divorces for any but Scriptural reasons.

Resolved, That this Conference respectfully requests its ministers to preach one special sermon within the year on social purity, and, as far as possible, to set aside "Prison Sunday," in October, for the delivery of an appropriate sermon on prison reform.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

The greed of gain demands seven days of toil. The inordinate love of pleasure asks that Sunday shall be made a day of frivolity, drunkenness and lust. Ninety per cent. of those who have come to us in the last decade are from the lands of the holiday and workday Sunday; and thousands of native-born Americans join with them in violating our Sunday laws in the name of liberty. If we are to change these tendencies and preserve our American Sunday, the good people must unite and do earnest battle for it. We must be true to our laws, our history, the best interests of our people, and the command of God.

We recognize the good work done in this country by the "Sunday League of America," represented at this session of our Conference by Dr Edward Thomson, and we stand ready to co-operate with this League in its great work of awakening and educating the people on this matter of Sunday observance. We have examined the literature of this League, recently published, and believe it to be valuable to that end. We accede to the proposition of this society to set apart each year a "Lord's Day Week," in which to preach and pray and stimulate special interest in Sunday reform. The law must be obeyed in our State, and where it is evaded or ignored, we must do our utmost to quicken public conscience, and insist on officers enforcing the law. All labor must be reduced to the minimum of necessity and mercy. Men ought to be willing to sacrifice some personal convenience for the good of others. Every toiler ought to have his day of rest and self-improvement; and we pledge ourselves to help all we can to develop such conditions as shall restore the Sabbath to the toilers of our State and Nation.

W M Nelson,
Sherman Powell,
George Cocking.

SUSTENTATION.

Your Committee on Sustentation report as follows:

1. There is an urgent need of help toward the support of the pastor and his family upon a number of the weaker charges of our Conference.

2. We are unable to draw upon the funds of our Missionary Society for this work.

3. Our pastors and people need an awakening to the importance of this cause. There is a sacred obligation upon us as pastors to come to the relief of those of our brethren who are receiving an inadequate support from their charges. The necessitous cases are not all found among the ranks of the superannuates.

4. We recommend that $2,000 be apportioned to the districts for the ensuing year; that the amounts raised be applied in the several districts by a committee of three, of which the Presiding Elder shall be a member and chairman.

5. We recommend that a list of the charges receiving aid from this fund, with the amounts received in each case, be published in the annual minutes of the Conference.

6. We ask that the Presiding Elders be requested to bring up this subject in the first Quarterly Conference of each pastoral charge.

Report of the Auditing Committee.

The statements of the amounts received and disbursed by the committee having in charge the distribution of the Sustentation Fund were submitted. These were examined April 14, 1902, and were found correct.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

Inasmuch as our 468 Sunday Schools afford religious training for nearly 54,000 recorded scholars, so that the greatness of our responsibility can not be overestimated; and

Whereas, The Sunday School Union of our church offers to share with us its wonderful resources, and asks in return a small contribution; therefore be it

Resolved, That the pastors look well to the interests of the Sunday School, and urge the use of our Methodist literature, so ably edited by Dr T B Neely, and that prayerful attention be given the selection of teachers and officers who watch over our children.

Resolved, That a faithful effort be made to meet the small apportionment for each charge; and

Resolved, That all special days, as Children's Day, Good Tidings Day and Easter be observed, and that each Temperance lesson be permitted its place in the moral instruction of our schools.

The following list of officers of the Sunday School Society is named:

President — J M Canse.

Secretary — J L Hutchens.

Treasurer — I R Godwin.

Managers — T M Guild, M S Marble, J W Paschall.

ON TRACTS.

Whereas, The Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is doing a great evangelical work in its annual distribution of millions of tracts, in home and foreign lands,

Resolved, That we raise the full amount apportioned to our Conference for the ensuing year.

J M Canse, Chairman.
E E Trippeer, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

1. The position of the Methodist Episcopal Church on the legalized liquor traffic is well known. The declarations of the Discipline are specific and unmistakable. We think a more concerted action upon the part of the ministry and laity is very necessary to insure greater success.

2. In harmony with the recommendations of Bishop Mallalieu, we advise the appointment of the Sunday preceding the Fourth of July as Patriotic Sunday, and that the Fourth be celebrated by the young people of our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues in a Christian temperance rally.

3. We are apprised of the fact that from certain quarters there comes a demand for the elimination of the Temperance Lesson from our Sunday School study. We affirm our belief that there is no dearth of Scripture on the treatment of the drink evil, and we believe there ought to be a lesson each month, rather than to restrict the teaching of Temperance.

4. We endorse and approve of the Anti-Saloon League, and all kindred organizations, for the overthrow of the saloon, and recommend that Dr H W Bennett be appointed a delegate to represent this Conference at the National Anti-Saloon League Convention, to be held in the city of Washington, December 9-11, 1902.

5. We heartily approve of the proposed action of Congrees in appropriating over a million of dollars to supply the moral and intellectual needs of our soldiers in camp, at home and abroad.

By order of the Committee.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

It is a very great pleasure to report that the past year has been characterized by the most generous gifts and the largest increase of any year in our Conference history.

Auxiliaries have been organized at Ashley, Spencerville, Wesley Chapel, Goldsmith, Brimfield, Centerville, Cambridge City; Third Church, Richmond; Markland Avenue, Kokomo; Markle, Monroe, Pleasant Mills, Bobo, and Bands at Marion; Madison Street, Muncie; New Castle and Knightstown; also a Circle at Marion. We now have 56 Auxiliaries, 8 Circles, and 8 Bands, with a total membership of 2,087, being an increase of 340.

In addition to our dues paid into the general fund, we have scholarships in the following Homes: Kinsey, Jessie Lee, Bennett, Boylan, Ritter, Harwood New Jersey and Thayer Homes. Special contributions have been sent to Harwood Home, Hawaii, Jewett, New Mexico, Jacksonville Training School, Kansas City Training School, Key West, Marcy Home, Oriental work, California, Porto Rico, Smith Home, Little Rock, Utah, and to Rust Hall, the new addition to our National Training School at Washington, D. C.

We have also helped support the Deaconess work of our own State. We have supported Miss Flora Mitchell, missionary and Superintendent of Thayer Home, Atlanta, Ga.

Our contributions to the special fund for the year are $1,890. Supplies for the year have been sent valued at $1,160.

Miss Vera B Showalter, of Kokomo, has answered the Master's call to mission work, and is doing efficient service at Kent Industrial Home, Greensboro, N. C. Miss Zora Huddleston, of Kansas City, will graduate at our National Home, Washington, D. C., as Nurse Deaconess.

Miss Dela Hoover, of First Church, Richmond, who had taken a course at our National Training School, and who has been doing splendid work as a Nurse Deaconess for about two years in California, was married a few weeks ago.

While we have great reason to rejoice in what has been accomplished, yet we would not flatter ourselves with the thought that we have fully met our resposibilities. Many fields "white unto the harvest" await our coming. The Master bids us enter. With loyal heart let us follow his leading. We want every Methodist woman in our Conference enrolled as a member of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and reading our Home Missionary literature. Full information in regard to our work will multiply our receipts.

The Treasurer's report shows an increase of $1,222.76.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

The most stupendous undertaking known to man is that of bringing this world to Christ. For this work we must enlist a great company of co-workers. From the time of the promise, "The seed of the woman shall bruise the head of the serpent," to the present time, among the most illustrious names are those belonging to consecrated womanhood. Her services to the church of to-day are absolutely necessary; therefore Resolved, First. That we believe the organized forms of Christian activity among the women of our church, and which have received the authoritative sanction of our church, are in harmony with the will of God.

Second. That we will encourage in every proper way the development and high usefulness of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies where such exist, and where they do not exist will arrange for and welcome the visitation to our churches of any authorized representatives of either of these societies who may come with a view of organizing auxiliaries.

Third. That an efficient Conference Board, consisting of nine members, at least four of whom shall be women, be appointed by the Conference to carry out, as far as practicable, the provisions of the Discipline regarding the work of Deaconesses among us.

P J Albright, President.
J O Campbell, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

METHODIST REVIEW.

With great pleasure we record our appreciation of the unsurpassed excellence of the Methodist Review. We bespeak for it a larger circulation among our laymen, and we believe it indispensable to every Methodist minister's library; and

WHEREAS, It has been placed in the Conference course of study; therefore be it

Resolved, That we respectfully request the editor and publishers to add to the Review a department devoted to exegetical and homiletical study, or so to enlarge the department entitled, "The Itinerant's Club," as to admit a larger discussion of sermonic methods and the principles of Biblical interpretation.

WESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Resolved, That we hereby express our gratification at the increasing importance and influence of the Western Christian Advocate, indorsing heartily the literary value of this excellent religious weekly, and especially the able evangelical character of the editorial management of Drs. Gilbert and Browne; and we acknowledge in the Western an arm of great strength in all the moral and religious work of the church. We pledge ourselves to increase the subscriptions thereto to the utmost limits.

Believing that the use of live birds by sportsmen to exhibit their skill in marksmanship is exceedingly cruel and inhuman, we therefore condemn such sport, and petition all religious bodies to use their influence to have a national prohibitory law against such sport passed by the United States Congress.

THANKS.

Whereas, The North Indiana Conference has been so hospitably entertained in Marion during its present session; therefore be it

Resolved, That we do hereby sincerely express our hearty appreciation of the hospitable entertainment extended to us by the local church and citizens of Marion, who have so kindly opened their houses to receive us, and who have done for us everything in their power.

Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the music rendered by the Choir, the North Indiana Conference Quartette, to Brother and Sister Harris, to Mr John Hillis, to Miss Edna Luring, and all others who have so kindly contributed to the interest of our sessions.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to the Telephone Company and press; and to the Marion Bank, for favors conferred upon our Treasurer, and for the acceptance of our business.

Resolved, That the sister churches have accorded to us the privileges of Christian organizations in inviting our ministers to occupy their pulpits; and especially would we express our thanks for the use of the Christian Temple, so cordially given.

Resolved, That we appreciate the kindness of Rev M Swadener and his efficient committees in contributing to our comfort in providing us such splendid homes for our entertainment, and for the interesting program arranged for our sessions.

Resolved, That we have greatly enjoyed the kind offices of our beloved Bishop, Isaac W Joyce. His splendid sermon, addresses, and kindly words have been a great inspiration to us; that we pray God to spare him yet many years, and in His own providence return him again to us.

W M Nelson,
I R Godwin,
O S Harrison,
C H Murray.

OBITUARY.

MRS. SARAH BOWYER ALBERTSON.

Sarah Belle, daughter of Washington L and Susann Bowyer, was born in Walton, Indiana, February 25th, 1861, and from childhood was distinguished by her amiable qualities. Being cheerful and patient of spirit her naturally lovely character was made beautiful by a genuine Christian experience that it is not strange that she attracted the friendship of innumerable hearts.

Being united in marriage to the Rev Edmund F Albertson, August 29th, 1880, she for fifteen years shared the toils and trials of the ministry, bearing heavy burdens with superior courage and rejoicing in every opportunity to serve the Church and the Master.

Gifted with a sweet and powerful voice she sang the songs of Zion "with spirit and with understanding." In the midst of household duties and the training of children her hands and mind and heart were full of care, yet she found time to visit the sick and minister to those who needed such help as she could give.

While Sister Albertson knew not that the end was so near, yet realizing its possibility, she expressed her confidence in God and in Him who leads His people through the shadow of death that they may see His face in glory. "Jesus is everything to me," was her confession. And it was given her to see, with eyes fast closing on the scenes of earth, the Savior's hand pointing toward the skies.

Sabbath, April 28th, was her last "Lord's day" on earth. A sad day it proved to be to the earthly interests of the fond family and group of friends, for shortly after midnight she passed into the "land of far distances" and into the presence of her king. As she swept through the gates into the city "which needs no sun, for the Lamb is the light thereof," many of her friends gave expression of their loss, as did also those of distant cities who bore tributes to her life when they said, "In her death I lose a sincere friend. Her many womanly virtues won my respect many years ago, and I always looked upon her as one of God's noblest women, a loving mother, a faithful wife and a true Christian."

The funeral services were conducted Wednesday, May 1st, at Ligonier, Ind, by the Rev B A Kemp, assisted by a large number of other ministers. Services were also held at Walton, Ind, by Rev W D Parr, assisted by the Rev L J Naftzger and others, at which place the interment occurred on May 3rd.

JOHN C WHITE.

REV. NELSON GILLAM.

When, in the town of Brookville, Ind, the day dawn of December 11th, 1814, announced to earth the birth of Nelson Gillam earth received one who in the highest and noblest meaning of the term, one who by his mission, by his character and his life, became a man. To the factor of heredity we are giving an ever increasing value in the equation of life. It means much to be well born. This can be truthfully said of the subject of this memoir. From his father, Thomas Gillam, he received a two-fold inheritance: a strong moral side, for his father was a Methodist exhorter, and a strong mental equipment, for his father reached the position of serving the people as Judge of the County Court. These native equipments were supplemented by an ever present desire to make his life useful to his fellow man. This desire found expression in many ways and acts of beneficence. All during his active life, if he found a family wanting the necessaries of life, he would quietly take a well-filled basket, covered from the gaze of the world, and leave with the needy ones.

The religious life of Brother Gillam was a long one, going back to his very early childhood days, at which time he always claimed he was converted. Although his faith claimed salvation through faith in Jesus Christ in his early childhood, yet he did not enter into a definite and conscious experience of salvation until he was twenty-two years of age. This was a marked period in his life. His religious life was translated into a different key. His faith became heroic which knew neither failure nor difficulty. Although a man of strong convictions and fearless in his expression of them, yet he was kind and gentle in all his relations with men. His strong character and faith, supplemented by a deeply spiritual nature and an intense piety, made him a man of great influence and helpfulness wherever he went.

To him was given the rare gift of being cumulative in the management of his financial affairs, the effect of which was rather to broaden and enlarge his powers than narrow them. Of his means he gave largely to different causes for the glory and honor of God. Perhaps no man of his ability has done more for the various benevolent enterprises of our church than Brother Gillam. While giving freely to all the benevolent interests of the church, he was especially interested in the work of Church Extension, to which he gave so much that to-day there are several Frontier Churches that are standing as monuments to his liberality.

His devotion to the church and piety towards God was such that in 1851 he consecrated his life to the ministry and became a member of the North Indiana Conference, which then occupied the entire north half of the State. When the division of the Conference was made he placed his membership with the present North Indiana Conference and has remained a member of it until called to his reward. His ministry was always attended with great revivals, not of the superficial kind in which numbers are counted, but of the kind in which men are deeply convicted of their sins, gloriously converted to God and saved from their sins. This was to be expected; for his preaching was of the Penticostal character and the preacher was of the type of Peter. He believed in the doctrines of the Bible and preached them with power and effectiveness. Those who heard his preaching were convicted of their sins and cried to God for salvation. In all probability the North Indiana Conference has had but few men under whose preaching more souls have been converted than under the preaching of Father Gillam. His work on the following charges, which he faithfully and acceptably served, was honored of God and blessed to the souls of the people: 1851, Westfield; 1852, Carmel: 1853-4, Pendleton; 1855-6, Noblesville; 1857-8, Winchester; 1859-60, Goshen; 1861-2, Marion; 1863, Noblesville; 1864-5, Knightstown; 1866-7, New Castle; 1868, Anderson; 1869-71, Logansport; 1872-4, Pearl Street, Richmond; 1875, Noblesville; 1876-8, Bluffton; 1879, Knightstown; 1880-2, Hartford City.

In 1883 he took a superannuated relation and made his residence at Richmond. His pastors always found him a faithful friend and a wise counsellor, and a ready and willing co-worker in the enterprises of the church. His supreme thought until the very last moment of his life was for the prosperity and success of Zion which he loved so well. The last words that were ever uttered by his lips were "Zion stands with hills surrounded, Zion kept by power Divine."

His last illness was of short duration, beginning with what seemed to be a slight cold, but suddenly developed into congestion of the lungs, which because of his extreme age, he was not able to withstand, thus ending a long and useful life of more than eighty-seven years. In the early morning hours of the Sabbath of January 5th, 1902, the Master sent His messenger for the soul of Father Gillam who went to be forever with the Lord. The Memorial services were held at the home in Richmond on the afternoon of January 6th in charge of Rev M E Nethercut, assisted by Dr G H Hill, Presiding Elder, and Revs F C Kemper, E F Hasty, J P Chamness, L H Bunyan and L A Retts. Next day his body was quietly laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Muncie, to await the trumpet call at the last day to a life of glorious immortality.

D V Williams.

REV. NER H. PHILLIPS.

Ner H Phillips was born in Randolph County, Indiana, September 11, 1829. He died February 17, 1902, aged seventy-two years, five months and six days.

His parents were Thomas and Rebecca Phillips, early pioneers of Indiana, stanch, loyal Methodists and devoted Christian people. On his father's farm he spent his early years. In May, 1844, when he was but a lad of fourteen years, a lady in the neighborhood was instantly killed by lightning. He was strangely moved by this sudden calamity, and great questionings about life, duty and destiny thronged his mental and moral sky. To this lad this was an hour of awakening and enlargement, when his soul cried out unto God for light, illumination, assurance, liberty. On the Sunday following he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and avowed his purpose to lead a Christian life. A little later he found peace in believing in the Lord Jesus Christ. He knocked, and doors of hope, of mercy, of pardon, of assurance, of peace, of joy, of life, were opened to him. Christ came and satisfied his longing soul, and henceforth they were one.

His early life was a busy one. He toiled on the farm, he learned a trade, he went to school, he mastered books, he taught school—but all the while there was a conviction, which strengthened with the passing years, that God had not only called him to discipleship, but also to be His ambassador—to carry and preach His gospel to dying men. He hesitated and shrank from such high and holy calling. He cried out: "Who is sufficient for this work? Who am I, and what warrant have I to be a steward of God's own mysteries—of His mercy and love and salvation to men?" With greater power and clearness the conviction came to him, and convinced at last that God called him, and that he must preach the gospel, he commenced his ministerial career.

For nearly half a century the name of N H Phillips has been a familiar one to all Methodists of Northern Indiana. His tall and commanding figure, his strong face and manly bearing marked him as a person of unusual intelligence and strength of character. The pulpit was his throne. His sermons were logical, analytical, and were delivered with great power. In the days of his strength, of his effective ministry, he often thrilled and inspired congregations by his eloquence and great utterances and lofty periods. He was a mighty preacher of the gospel.

He was a strong and influential personality in the North Indiana Conference for many years. His ministry commenced at Selma, six miles east of Muncie, Ind, in 1853. He was thirty years in the regular pastorate. He served the charges in the order following: Selma, Windsor; Third Street, Peru; Selma, Albany, Marion, Pendleton, Centerville and Williamsburg, Knightstown; Pearl Street, Richmond; Berry Street, Fort Wayne; Muncie, Muncie District; Wabash District, Goshen, Knightstown, Hartford City, Kendalville, Fishersburg; and, during his superannuation, organized and had charge of Madison Street, Muncie. He served two full terms as presiding elder in the Muncie and Warsaw Districts. He was twelve years superannuated. He was twice a delegate to the General Conference of his Church. He was loved and honored by the Church and his brethren in the ministry.

In his early manhood he wooed and won the heart and hand of Mary Garrett, and they were married August 14, 1851, in Bloomingsport, Ind. Five children came to gladden their home and hearts, three of whom survive him. The eldest, Mrs Kate Thatcher, lives at Spokane, Wash; Mrs Mary J Cline, at Bluffton, Ind; and Emma G Phillips abode with her father until he closed his eyes in death. For twenty-seven years Mary Garrett Phillips aided her husband by her ready sympathies, her wise counsels and her strong affection. She was the hopeful, faithful, earnest, devoted itinerant's wife and helpmeet—the tender, loving mother of their children. During their pastorate at Goshen, Ind, she was called to the upper mansions. April 13, 1880, he was united in wedlock with Mrs Nancy E White, at Scircleville, Ind, and for nearly twenty-two years she shared his love and lot and home. She tenderly ministered to him in his affliction in these last years of his life with all the love, constancy and devotion that a true and faithful wife can give to the man she loves.

Brother Phillips was gentle and graceful in thought, speech and act. He was a kind neighbor, an affectionate husband, a wise, loving father, a loyal, patriotic citizen and a faithful servant of Jesus Christ. He always carried with him the marks of a Christian gentleman. His ministry was characterized by a broad, catholic spirit that drew all hearts to him and to the Christ he loved and served. The time of his ministry was all too brief though it covered nearly half a century. On Monday night, February 17, 1902, he answered his Master's call, and triumphantly swept through the gate into heaven.

But our brother is not dead. His mortal life is ended, but not so his work and influence and power among men. He has an immortality on earth that death can not touch nor time disturb. He lives in every Methodist Church and congregation where he preached the gospel of Jesus Christ and inspired men to nobler, better, holier living. He lives in the lives of those who, under his eloquent preaching and ministry, were brought out of darkness into light, out of bondage into liberty, and who live to help and bless and uplift their fellows.

The funeral services were held in High Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Muncie. The memoir was read by Rev C U Wade, and the sermon was delivered by Rev A W Lamport, D D; text, Acts viii, 2. Forty-one ministers were present, mostly members of the North Indiana Conference. The Ministerial Association of the city of Muncie, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body, and, through the secretary, offered and read beautiful resolutions. The interment occurred at Goshen, Ind, where Rev C C Cissell, D D, Rev F T Simpson, D D, and Rev S Light officiated at the final services.

MRS. LOUISA STABLER.

Margaret Louisa Stabler, daughter of the Rev J D and Lucinda Sims, and wife of the Rev Thomas Stabler, D D, was born July 10, 1838, north of the city of Indianapolis, Ind, on a farm. She was exceedingly fortunate in growing up in the environments of a Christian home — a home of culture, refinement and godliness. Father, mother, sons and daughters of that home were all singers. From the alter of that home went up to the Lord daily prayers and sweet songs of praise. All were loyal to God and the institutions of the country and to the Methodist Episcopal Church. Indeed, it was a typical home where our subject lived, and from which she derived those noble qualities of heart and mind that adorned her life of sixty-four years, forty-eight of which, with her husband, were spent in the active ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1854 she was joined in marriage to the Rev Thomas Stabler, and at once gave her consecrated talents to the calling of the ministry, and with ceaseless devotion to the promotion of the work of the Lord in building up the church and saving souls. She was admired for her quiet, dignified way, which characterized all her intercourse with the people, being actuated by the life motive of doing good to all, and bringing honor and glory to God; always governed by the high purpose to see her church reach the highest degree of power in bringing the world and all mankind to God. Next to her personal assurance of her acceptance in Christ Jesus, it was her great joy to see the kingdom of Christ extended throughout the whole world, for the promotion of which she gave the best powers of a noble life.

She took great interest in the welfare of her family and the society of her friends. No language can describe her great help in the work of the Christian ministry, by her varied talents and great wisdom, which she displayed in every place and under all circumstances.

In the church and in the world she was a bright and shining light in her generation. In public she was a fluent speaker, a sweet singer, eloquent in prayer, and was possessed of rare executive ability. Thoroughly versed in the doctrines and polity of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a nice discrimination of the questions of morality and Christian deportment. She was as well versed in the work and accomplishments of her church in distant countries as at home; the departments, the agents, offices, and the men of Methodism all over the world. Not only in touch with the vast interests of the church she loved, but was fully in sympathy with the great objects of Protestantism — the elevation of all mankind.

At the age of sixty-four she maintained a clear intellect and vigorous mind, and was up-to-date with her reading and knowledge of affairs of the times in church and state, and continued to have keen interest in this progressive age. Her reading in regard to the civil powers of the world placed her abreast of the times and peoples of the earth, so that she was able to converse intelligently with any one on passing events up to the time of her last illness, which was of about three weeks' duration. Previous to this time, for a year and a half, she had been in declining health, and on March 24, 1902, she was stricken with her fatal illness, and from that time on until near the close she was a great sufferer. On the second day before she passed away, the family being in the room, she called them to her, one by one, speaking words of affection, and bidding them good-bye, with the request that they all meet her in heaven. She attempted to sing, and, her voice failing, she requested the children to sing, and they joined in singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Then she prayed, "Jesus, take me, take me safely home." From that time on she was apparently not conscious of her surroundings, and while she had suffered intensely during her brief illness, she passed away at the end as calmly and peacefully as one in quiet sleep, at 9 o'clock and 27 minutes P. M., April 11, 1902, at the age of 63 years and 9 months.

Besides her husband, she leaves four children: William J Stabler, of Noblesville, Ind; Percy Stabler, of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs C F Hunt, of Indianapolis, Ind, and Mrs A P Conklin, of Greenfield, Ind. One brother, A J Sims, and one sister, Mrs J W Higgins, of Indianapolis, also survive.

On Saturday evening, April 12, at 7:30 o'clock, a brief service was held at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr and Mrs Alfred P Conklin, Greenfield, conducted by the Rev Mr Daily, pastor of the Christian church, and the Rev Mr Leach, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Rev Dailey read from the 23d Psalm and the 7th chapter of Revelations—the 9th verse to the end. Rev Leach read the Memoir and Mrs Stuart, of Greenfield, sang very tenderly two songs, the second being three verses of "Nearer My God to Thee." The Rev Daily offered prayer.

The remains were taken to Indianapolis to the home of Mr and Mrs C F Hunt, 2232 Central Ave., where, on Sunday, April 13th, the friends of the family called to pay their last respects. The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, April 14th, 1902, at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev H W Kellogg, D D, pastor of the Central Avenue M E Church, assisted by the Rev C E Bacon, D D, pastor of Robert's Park M E Church, and the Rev W D Parr, D D, assistant secretary of the Church Extension Society. Dr Kellogg read from the 90th Psalm and part of the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians and offered prayer. Dr Parr, an intimate friend of the family, delivered the sermon, taking for his text the 11th verse of the 16th Psalm. Dr Bacon read the Memoir and Miss Grim, a member of the Central Avenue Church choir, sang two songs, the second one being "Home of the Soul," a favorite hymn of the deceased. Mrs Stabler was laid to rest in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis.

MRS. W. M. HOLLOPETER.

Hattie, daughter of Perry and Anna Romine, was born at Leo, Ind, February 5th, 1869, and died at the parsonage home in Wakarusa, Ind, March 5th, 1902.

In the winter of 1883-4 she was happily converted in a meeting held by Brother J H Slack.

September 16th, 1891, she was united in marriage to W M Hollopeter. Brother Hollopeter, feeling himself called of God to preach the Gospel, felt called to make proper preparation, and in the year 1894 he and his wife moved to Greencastle, Ind, where they spent six busy, happy years; Sister Hollopeter carrying her full share of work in keeping together a home by keeping roomers and boarding students, thereby greatly endearing herself to many of the young men who are now preaching or will in the future. In the fall of 1900, having completed his college course, Brother Hollopeter and his wife moved, in September, to Topeka, and last April to Wakarusa charge. Here they labored happily and successfully together for a little more than a year, Sister Hollopeter displaying exceptional ability in church work. On March 5th, 1902, she was called to glory, dying in the triumphs of the faith. Sister Hollopeter had much to live for; life was full of hope and sweet promise, yet she was not afraid to die; the Savior whose service was so sweet to her did not fail her, and hers was a blessedly triumphant victory as she went sweeping through the gates.

Short funeral services were conducted at Wakarusa, March 7th, by C C Cissell, of Goshen, and on March 9th, funeral services were held at Auburn, Ind, by Rev L M Krider.

Appointment Record

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual and brought down to 1901. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

What some users say from experience:

"We are very much pleased with our new Hammond Typewriter, and believe it to be the very best machine on the market, especially suitable for pastors. We would advise all who want a first-class typewriter to get the Hammond." J. M. and M. J. HARRIS, Evangelists.

"I have been using a Hammond for some months and find it a satisfaction and a delight." REV. J. W. CAIN, Pastor M. E. Church, Peru, Ind.

"In my judgment, the Hammond is the best typewriter on the market to-day for the varied work of the preacher. I have owned four different makes of machines and find the Hammond far superior to any other." REV. LEWIS REEVES, Russiaville, Ind.

"I have used the Hammond Typewriter for eight years. It is, I believe, the best machine for the varied work of a clergyman." REV. ASHER S. PRESTON, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"I have used the Hammond Typewriter for about six months, and feel that I could not get along without the machine. It takes away the drudgery of writing, and makes it a real pleasure." REV. M. B. HYDE, Rushville, Ind.

"I have used the Hammond for ten years, and have found it in every way satisfactory." REV. J. H. DODDRIDGE, Presiding Elder, Ind Conf.

"I consider the Hammond the finest machine on the market to-day, and would not do without mine under any consideration." REV. CHAS. W. LEWIS, Pres't Moores Hill College.

"I have used the Hammond Typewriter for four years, and consider it the only machine fully suited to the use of a minister." REV. JOHN C. WHITE, Montpelier, Ind.

Mention CONFERENCE MINUTES

Winona Assembly and Summer School

Opens its eighth season under most favorable auspices. As a place for rest, recreation and enjoyment, all those who have been there will testify that it is ideal. The program contains the best talent that can be secured.

It opens July 7th and closes August 16th.

A conference for young people will be held from June 30th to July 6th, under the leadership of John Willis Baer, Secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. The Winona Bible Conference, under the leadership of Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., of New York City, will open August 17th and continue ten days. The speakers are from the leading pulpits of Europe and America.

It is expected that the Boys' Agricultural and Trade School will open September 10th. The Board of Directors has been selected, and they are among the leading business men of this country.

Winona golf links comprise 100 acres of rolling ground, and those who enjoy this game speak in the highest terms of the course. Winona is a fine place for Boating, Fishing, Bathing, Tennis and Other Games.

Among the many large buildings on the park is the Elijah Hays Memorial, which has been donated by Mr. Hays to the Methodist Church. It has been newly furnished throughout, and will be used as a large boarding house, under the management of Rev. E. M. Baker.

Write for our handsome illustrated eighty-page program, with fine art cover and full information regarding accommodations, expenses, etc., to
